

Please do not allow the telephone companies to create a monopoly of the internet. The companies that created the internet should not be pushed off the scene.